Fascinated by the simplistic beauty of Louisiana she has captured many subjects on canvas. She has traveled and painted realistic landscapes and other subject material throughout the United States, Canada, Central America and Panama. During her climb to prominence she studied with 58 renowned artists from the east coast to California.

Margo often sought after and attended technical art workshops, maintaining constant exposure with other dedicated artists interested in continued professionalism beneficial to both the artist and her students.

Margo, diversified in oil, acrylic and watercolor media has also received acclaim for realistic pen and ink graphics, which hang in the offices and homes of many prominent citizens. Some of Margo's art hang in the offices of Boise, Bayne Jones Army Hospital, Fort Polk in the visitors lobby and the administration offices and other offices here in Louisiana and other states.

Margo has been teaching art for the past 30 years to adults and children, many of them have also won awards and have continued on in their art education.
