Nancy Czejkowski ‘s solo exhibition, “First Class Seat” will be featured at the Real Art DeRidder Arts Cooperative, May 2-29, 2010. An award winning artist she is accomplished in pastel, charcoal, oil, acrylic and pen and ink. Her goal in painting is to transport the viewer to the various places throughout the world which she has visited, from the USA to Europe. This show features her travels through the Louisiana countryside, and the cities of New Orleans, Savannah and New York City, the Smokey Mountains of North Carolina, the Amalfi Coast of Italy, Rome, and Florence, as well as locations in Greece, Sicily and Turkey .

She has studied with New England artist, Gail Fields, Gerry Wubben and Anne Dentler of Lake Charles, Alan Flattmann of New Orleans and Henry Blount of Alexandria. As a member of the ALA Gallery by the Lake, the Arts and Humanities Council in Lake Charles, RAD in Deridder, and the Lone Star Arts Guild of Houston, she receives inspiration as she learns and works with the members of these organizations .

Born in New York City, raised in Connecticut from the age of 10, she was educated in New England and holds an Associate Degree in Marketing and Merchandising from Mt. Ida College in Newton Centre, MA . She has been a resident of Moss Bluff, Louisiana since 1979.

An opening reception honoring the artist will be held on May 2, from 2:00 to 4:00 pm.
